DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Onishi (US 5,708,284).

With regard to claim 1, Onishi discloses a ferroelectric memory device (col. 5, line 30 to col. 11, line 7) comprising:

- An insulation film 7 having a hollow at a top surface (col. 8, lines 14-15);
- A laminated body 8a, 8b, 9, and 10 obtained by laminating a plurality of layers on the top surface and etching a region of the plurality of layers corresponding to a region other than the hollow (col. 8, lines 20-23);
- The laminated body includes a lower electrode layer 8b, a ferroelectric layer 9 formed on the lower electrode, and an upper electrode layer 10 formed on the ferroelectric layer.

With regard to claim 2, Onishi discloses a film 8a formed in the bottom of the hollow and separating between the insulation film and the lower electrode (col. 8, line 16).

With regard to claim 3, Onishi discloses the lower electrode includes a first electrode electrode portion 11g.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Onishi (US 5,708,284).

With regard to claim 4, Onishi discloses the laminated body of film 8a and 8b could be IrO<sub>2</sub>/Ir instead of TiN/Ti/Pt (col. 6, lines 35-55). Therefore, the thin film 8a is formed of a same material as the lower electrode.

With regard to claim 5, Onishi discloses the lower electrode is planarized to receive the ferroelectric layer (fig. 6), but does not disclose the lower electrode is planarized flush with the insulation film. However, since the criticality has not been established, this is merely a design choice.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 8/13/01 have been fully considered. The 35 U.S.C. 102(b) rejection of claim 5 is maintained. Applicant's argument of obviousness is as

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
